

PLENARY SPEAKER

Bernard Salt – KPMG
Wednesday, 07 September 2016

Bio: Bernard Salt is the national Partner responsible for KPMG’s Demographics group. He has over 25 years’ experience in providing demographic analysis and social commentary. He is a recognised expert in local, national and global demographic trends. Bernard is perhaps best known to the Australian business community for his commentary in the media on the implications of demographic and social change. Bernard is a twice-weekly columnist with The Australian newspaper and is an adjunct professor at Curtin University Business School. Bernard is also an experienced media commentator and is a regular guest on various radio and television programs.

Title: Redefining the Way We Think about Ageing and the Aged

Abstract: The baby boomer generation is now straddling the transition to the retirement stage of the lifecycle. They are the first generation to have seen their parents age into their 80s and beyond. And they are determined to age differently, better, to make the most of their healthy years. In this presentation Bernard Salt will look at the ways in which the boomers are redefining the ageing process.